Kathleen Healy is a hard-working musician & songwriter living on Cape Cod. She draws from her experience of living and raising a family near the beach for many of her songs. Some say saltwater runs through her veins. Kathleen writes from the heart and her honest lyrics and often poignant subject matter lend themselves to the unique quality of her voice. She recently released her second studio album entitled Embracing the Journey.

#saltwatersongwriter BMI, FAI, RISA member.

Meaghan Casey is a singer-songwriter based on the southern shores of Massachusetts. Wielding a guitar and banjo, her music has been described as a blend of different genres, including but not limited to traditional folk, americana, punk and alternative country. In 2018 she released her demo EP "Migration" combined with a tour from Vermont to North Carolina and back. She's hoping for an even more exciting 2019 and is currently booking for "the rest of her life". <https://meaghancasey.com>

Open Mic-some after the opener, some after the break.

PAUL RISHHELL & ANNIE RAINES

CONCERT Saturday, October 5 - $22 M, $24 NM

South Shore Folk Music Club welcomes the return of Paul Rishell and Annie Raines, who have become SSFMC favorites. When 22-year-old harmonica ace Annie Raines first sat in with 42-year-old country blues guitarist Paul Rishell in a Boston bar in 1992, few in the crowd suspected that they were witnessing the beginning of a musical partnership. As a working team, Paul and Annie have racked up hundreds of thousands of miles on the road in the U.S. and Europe, collaborated on original songs, and released I Want You To Know (Tone-Cool/Artemis 1996), Moving to the Country (2000), the W.C. Handy Award winner for Acoustic Blues Album of the Year, Goin' Home (2004), which was nominated for two Handy Awards, A Night in Woodstock (2008), and Talking Guitar (2012). Paul and Annie are equally passionate about their craft and devoted to the study and performance of a wide range of blues styles, from the syncopated acoustic guitar wizardry of Blind Lemon Jefferson and Son House to Chicagoan "Little" Walter Jacob's swinging amplified harmonica. Paul has reached what Boston Phoenix writer Ted Drozdowski called "a place deep and resonant as Robert Johnson's crossroads, where authenticity, soul, and a sense of purpose and commitment ring out in every note he sings and plays." Annie has added vocals, mandolin, piano, and other instruments to her musical arsenal, while being recognized by top professionals and fans worldwide as the "queen of the blues harmonica." Says blues legend Pinetop Perkins, "She plays so good it hurts!" Touring internationally at festivals, clubs, and concert halls, and teaching workshops and seminars, Paul Rishell & Annie Raines have earned loyal fans around the globe. They have performed and recorded with Susan Tedeschi, John Sebastian, Pinetop Perkins, and Rory Block, and appeared on Late Night with Conan O'Brian and Prairie Home Companion. "Rishell is a master of country/blues styles, particularly slide played on a National steel guitar. Raines, a rare female ace blues harmonica blower, shows that she is as strong an acoustic country harp accompanist as she is a harder-edged, electrified Chicago-style lead player à la the great Little Walter..." -Billboard

COFFEEHOUSE – SATURDAY, OCTOBER 19

$9 Members and Open Mic Performers, $10 Non-members

Plymouth Rock Music is singer songwriter, Frank Albani's band, PRM is made up of many SSFMC friends. With Susan Lee Anderson on piano, Fred Meltzer on drums, Billy Mulligan, guitar, Dave Hanson, bass, and singer, Cynthia Perkins, Frank will showcase his friends as they rip it up with rockin originals and tasteful covers. In late 2017 Plymouth Rock Music released "Songs for my Mother", with 13 original songs. Check us out on F B or download tunes at: PlymouthRockMusic.US

Steven Lamb is a good friend and no stranger to the SSFMC stage. Fluent in many guitar styles, when he starts finger pickin the blues you'll be rubbin your eyes thinking you're listening to Doc Watson or Jorma Kaukonen. Check out Steven Albert Lamb on F B.

Open Mic, some after the opener, some after the break.

COFFEEHOUSE/OPEN MIC FORMAT 2019-2020
