to an international status. Having headlined major music festivals and venues across the US, Canada and UK, this band has a devoted cult following. The band is led by songwriter Joziah Longo (vocals/guitar/harmonica) "Soothing and bewitching as a snake oil tonic, the entire root system of Rock Family Trees is embedded in Longo's voice." - The Big Issue, Scotland, UK, and joined by Sharkey McEwen (guitar, mandolin), Tink Lloyd (accordion, cello, etc), and Eric Puente (drums, percussion). They create a captivating vibe that feeds the soul.

COFFEEHOUSE – Saturday, April 20 - $9M, $10NM

Mark T Small is an internationally recognized musician and entertainer who's performed throughout the U.S. & Europe. He won Best Acoustic Blues Album in 2014 and his recordings have reached the top 20 on National Music Charts. Mark is an extraordinary accomplished guitarist; his playing has the razor edge and speed developed from years of flat-picking. The combination of his lightning fast bluegrass style with soulful blues are integral to Mark's style today. He is equally adept at old-time to ragtime to boogie. Mark's signature singing and foot-stomping Delta Blues with a Chicago blues slant and Honkytonk renditions spells a formidable, electrifying artist!

Bill Anderson uses images, stories, and fingerstyle guitar to present songs about places and people from his life and travels. From Guadalajara to Warsaw he takes those experiences and weaves them into songs filled with characters and feelings. His work is self-concealing, inviting the listener in to discover truths. With a love song about the La Brea Tar Pits or a Midwest metaphor, Bill's clear tenor covers a range of emotions, making a lasting impression!

Open Mic: Some after Bill, some after the break. Sign up when the doors open at 6:30 PM
